

Program 17th International Panorama ConferenceThursday, 11th September

- 16:00 City tour
- 19:00 Dinner in Panometer Leipzig, including a visit to the Panorama 'ROME CCCXII'.
Welcome by Prof. Yadegar Asisi (Panorama artist/Managing Director of the Panometer GmbH) and Ernst Storm MSc (President of the International Panorama Council)
-

International Panorama Council / Panometer GmbHTheme: 'Spatial Simulation and the Future of the Panorama'*12th - 14th September 2008, Dresden/Germany

Panometer Dresden
Gasanstaltstrasse 8b
01237 Dresden
Germany

Friday, 12th September

- 07:00 Transfer Leipzig – Dresden
- 09:00 Check in Hotels in Dresden
- 10:45 – 13:00 City tour and visit to the 'Old Masters Gallery'
Individual lunch
- 13:30 Registration at the Panometer Dresden – office building
- 14:30 Opening of the 17th International Panorama Conference at the Panometer Dresden:
Welcome by Yadegar Asisi (Panorama artist/Managing Director of the Panometer GmbH) and Ernst Storm MSc (President of the International Panorama Council)

Block I: Protecting Panorama Heritage

- 15:00 – 15:30 The situation of the Bergisel-Panorama in Innsbruck, Austria: Dr. Renée Gautron (Association 'For our Panorama')
- 15:30 – 16:00 The situation of Panorama Mesdag in The Hague, Holland: Ernst Storm MSc (President of the International Panorama Council)
- 16:00 – 16:45 The restoration of the Battle of Gettysburg Cyclorama in Gettysburg, PA, USA: Ryszard Wojtowicz (Art Conservator, adviser of Gettysburg National Battlefield Museum Foundation)
- 16:45 – 17:15 "Back to its original glory": the big restoration campaign of the Panorama in Altoetting, Germany 2004-2007: Thomas Schoeller M.A. (Atelier Thomas Schoeller) and Dr. Ing. Norbert Bergmann (Planning office for rebuilding and renovation)
- 17:15 – 17:45 Coffee
- 17:45 – 18:15 'This new kind of merry-go-round': The Rotating Saloon of the Diorama: Prof. Erkki Huhtamo (University of California Los Angeles, Dept. of Design/Media Art)
- 18:15 – 18:45 3D modelling based on spherical panoramas in Cultural Heritage: Karol Kwiatek MSc (University of Plymouth, Institute for the Creative & Cultural Industries)

18:45 – 19:15 Pak Song-Chop or So Yong Jin: Experience on panorama creation of Paekho creative team and Future of international panoramas (Korea Paekho Trading Corp., Pyongyang)
19:30 Dinner in Panometer and visit to the Panorama '1756 Dresden'
Welcome by Yadegar Asisi (Panorama artist/Managing Director of the Panometer GmbH), Ernst Storm MSc (President of the International Panorama Council) and Frank Neuber (DREWAG, main sponsor of Panometer Dresden)

Saturday, 13th September

from 08:30 Coffee and registration in Panometer Dresden – office building
09:15 – 09:30 Introduction by Ernst Storm MSc (President of the International Panorama Council) and Prof. Yadegar Asisi (Panorama artist/Managing Director of the Panometer GmbH)

Block II: Panoramic Perception

Theme 1: Management

09:30 – 10 :00 Culture and Economy: Who is managing whom?: Michael Nimmermann (Management consulter and free lecturer)
10:00 - 10:30 Enterprise and brands identities: Dipl. Thomas Matla (Unit Matla - Creative Marketing Projects)
10:30 - 11:00 Sattler-Panorama Salzburg: Mag. Karin Rachbauer-Lehenauer (Head of Panorama Museum)
11:00 – 11:30 Coffee in office building of Panometer Dresden

Theme 2: Technologies

11:30 - 12:00 VDTC - A Door to Virtual Worlds: Andreas Hoepfner (Fraunhofer Institute)
12:00 – 12:30 Printing Development: Andreas Jacobi (OCÉ Display Graphics Systems)
12:30 - 13:30 Lunch in office building of Panometer Dresden
13:30 – 14:00 High Resolution Photography: dipl. inform. Matthias Taugwalder (concept360)
14:00 - 14:30 Sound Environments for Panoramas: Dipl.-Ing. Moritz Fehr (echo.org; Sound Environments for the Panoramas Altoetting and Los Angeles)
14:30 – 15:00 Coffee in office building of Panometer Dresden

Theme 3: Optics and Perspective

15.00 - 15:30 Perspective and its Meaning for Panoramas: Prof. Yadegar Asisi (Panorama artist/Managing director of the Panometer GmbH)
15:30 - 16:00 Immersion: Prof. Dr. Oliver Grau (Head of Department for Cultural Studies, Donau-University Krems)
16:00 - 16:30 Coffee in office building of Panometer Dresden

Theme 4: Devices for the Future

- 16:30 - 17:00 iPanorama: Prof. Yadegar Asisi (Panorama artist/Managing Director of the Panometer GmbH)
- 17:00 - 18:00 Project presentation: Artistic and technical dimensions of the linking of physical movements in the physical space with virtual sound and picture surroundings: Dr. Klaus Nikolai (Transmedia Academy) und Frieder Weiß (Media information scientist and media artist)
- 18:00 – 18:15 Presentation of images of the installation of the new E-Cyclorama: Prof. Sanford Wurmfeld (Hunter College, New York)
- c. 19:30 Dinner at "Kurfuerstenhof"
(Restaurant Café Zechkeller, An der Frauenkirche 13, 01067 Dresden)
-

Sunday, 14th September

from 09:00 Coffee and registration in Panometer Dresden – office building

Block III: Perceiving the Future

- 09:30 - 10:30 Status Quo and Transition - Tasks for the International Panorama Council: Patrick Deicher M.A. (Secretary to the International Panorama Council)
- 10:30 - 13:00 Workshops on the future of panoramic perception, the protection of panoramas and the future of the International Panorama Council
- 13:00 - 14:00 Lunch in "Hotel an der Rennbahn"
- 14:00 - 15:00 Presentation of workshop results
- 15:00 - 16:00 Plenary discussion
- 16:00 – 16:10 18th International Panorama Conference 2009 in Australia: Jeff Morgan (Panorama artist)
- 16:10 – 16:40 Summary and closure of the conference: Ernst Storm MSc (President of the International Panorama Council)
- 16:40 – 17:30 Drinks in Panometer Dresden
- 17:00 – 19:00 Meeting of the Executive Board of the International Panorama Council
- c. 19:30 Farewell dinner at "Sophienkeller"
(Sophienkeller, Taschenberg 3, 01067 Dresden)