

Panoramas Bridging Cultures and Time

April 16, 2010 Panorama 1453

Topkapi culture parc, Merkez Efendi Mahallesi, Topkapi - Zeytinburnu, Istanbul

- 18:00 Opening Reception and registration
Visit of 'Panorama 1453'
Welcome Drinks
- Ernst M. Storm (President of the International Panorama Council)
- Nevzat Bayhan (General Manager, Culture Co.)
- Salih Dogan (Director in charge of Panorama 1453)
- 20:30 Dinner at Titanic City Hotel, address: Lamartin Cad. No 47, Taksim 34437 Istanbul

April 17, 2010 Conference Center at Titanic City Hotel

Lamartin Cad. No 47, Taksim 34437 Istanbul

- 09:00 Registration, Coffee/tea
09:10 Nevzat Bayhan (General Manager, Culture Co.)
09:20 Ernst M. Storm (President of the International Panorama Council IPC)
Session 1: creating a new panorama
09:30 Salih Dogan (Director in charge of Panorama 1453): The historical background of Panorama 1453 (story of the city of Istanbul and especially the events of 1453)
10:00 Hasim Vatandas (Project Coordinator): The way to panorama 1453 (the process from the idea or initiative to the final panorama)
10:30 Hasim Vatandas (Project Coordinator): Painting the panorama (the way from the sketches to the final painting)
11:00 Coffee/tea
Session 2: Panoramas: art history and history
11:30 Ernst Storm presenting a paper by Denise Oleksijczuk (Ass. Prof., School for the Contemporary Arts at Simon Fraser University, Vancouver/Canada): Henry Aston Barker's Panoramas of Constantinople, 1801
12:00 Mimi Colligan (cultural historian, Adjunct Research Fellow, National Centre for Australian Studies, Monash University, Australia): Sebastopol in Australia: modelled panoramas and a cyclorama 1855 and 1897
12:30 Lunch
14:00 Ralph Hyde (Panorama Researcher, London/UK): London to Paris, Part 2. A recently re-discovered sequel to a toy moving panorama
14:30 Veronica Frenks (Romanist, Vlissingen/The Netherlands): Panorama The Siege of Flushing 1809 painted by Henry Aston Barker
15:00 Gabriele Koller (Art Historian, Panorama Researcher, Ph.D. Candidate, Bonn/Germany): Storms, fires and other catastrophes. The fate of some 19th century panoramas
15:30 Thiago Leitão de Souza (Architect, Ph.D. Student, Universidade Federal do Rio de Janeiro - FAU - PROURB/Brazil): The Panorama of Rio de Janeiro by Victor Meirelles and Henri Langerock
16:00 Coffee/tea

- 16:30 Dominik Imhof (Curator Art Museum of Thun/Switzerland): The Panorama of Thun - On the history and the future of the oldest surviving panorama painting
- 17:00 Suzanne Wray (Panorama Researcher, New York/USA): Paul Philippoteaux's "Harlem" Studio and the Niagara Panorama
- 17:30 DVD presentation on the transcription and translation of the diaries of panorama painter Friedrich Wilhelm Heine (moderator, Suzanne Wray)
- 18:00 Sara Velas (Artist, Los Angeles/USA): Update information on the recent initiative to restore the Pilgrim's Progress (moving) panorama in the collection of the Saco Maine museum
- 18:30 Sanford Wurmfeld (Prof., Hunter College New York/USA): Introducing the new E-Cyclorama II project
- 19:30 Dinner

April 18, 2010 Conference Center at Titanic City Hotel

- 09:00 Coffee/tea
- Session 3: related art and media forms
- 09:30 Stefan Oettermann (Art Historian, Curator Asisi Visual Culture GmbH, Berlin/Germany): Johann Carl Enslin (1759-1848). Balloonist, Aerostatic Artist, Phantasmagorist, Mechanic, Panoramist, Pioneer of Photography
- 10:00 Ronald Huynen (Artist, Rotterdam/The Netherlands): Play the Panorama. A series of endless 'relay travelogues' drawn by local contemporary artists from all over the world
- 10:30 Coffee/tea
- 11:00 Jeremy Diggle (Prof., Massey University, Wellington/New Zealand): Narvik's complaint, a new cyclorama
- 11:30 Sara Velas (Artist, Los Angeles/USA): Creating a new moving panorama: The Grand Moving Mirror of California
- 12:00 Lunch
- Session 4: The Future of the International Panorama Council.
Converting the network into a membership association
- 14:00 Introduction by Ernst Storm (President) and Patrick Deicher (Secretary and Member of the Board)
- 14:20 Plenary discussion
- 15:00 Founding meeting, adaption of the statutes
Elections to the Executive Board
Fixing the membership fee
- 17:00 Executive Board meeting
- 18:00 Bosphorus tour and dinner at vessel

April 19, 2010, Post-Conference Tour

- 08:30 Bus leaves at Titanic City Hotel
- 09:00 - 10:00 Galata Tower visit
- 10:00 - 12:00 Miniaturk visit, www.miniaturk.com.tr
- 12:00 - 13:00 Lunch at Miniaturk
- 13:00 - 14:30 Basilica Cistern
- 14:30 - 16.00 Hagia Sophia
- 16:00 Transfer to Airport